Break Out Sessions

Creative Thinking Workshop/if your team needs help with thinking outside the box this session is for you.

-This 45-60 minute break out session consists of your executives, managers and associates working hard to imagine, act and produce fun exercises specifically designed to wake up your imagination. You and your team are going to jump right into the action and be totally blown away with how fast the ideas start flowing, once your blood is circulating and your brain is in sync with your body!

-First you are going to warm up using a series of techniques designed to get everyone in sync.

-Second you will learn fun, interactive and productive ways to think creatively.

-Third is a review of how you can implement the strategies you just learned into your everyday business life, with a Q&A to follow.

"The Blue Tie Guys creative ideas have made All Star Talent, Inc a successful business in Myrtle Beach. They are wonderful to all who work with them. If you haven't had the pleasure of working with Andrew & Bryan you are definitely missing out. I would highly recommend hiring them when you're looking to hire the best entertainment for any event."
